MSC Enhances North Europe Connections With China and Middle East

- Condor service to call at Nansha (south China) and Abu Dhabi (UAE)
- Current transit times on Condor will not be affected

MSC is updating its Condor service by introducing two new calls which will enhance connections between North Europe and Asia:

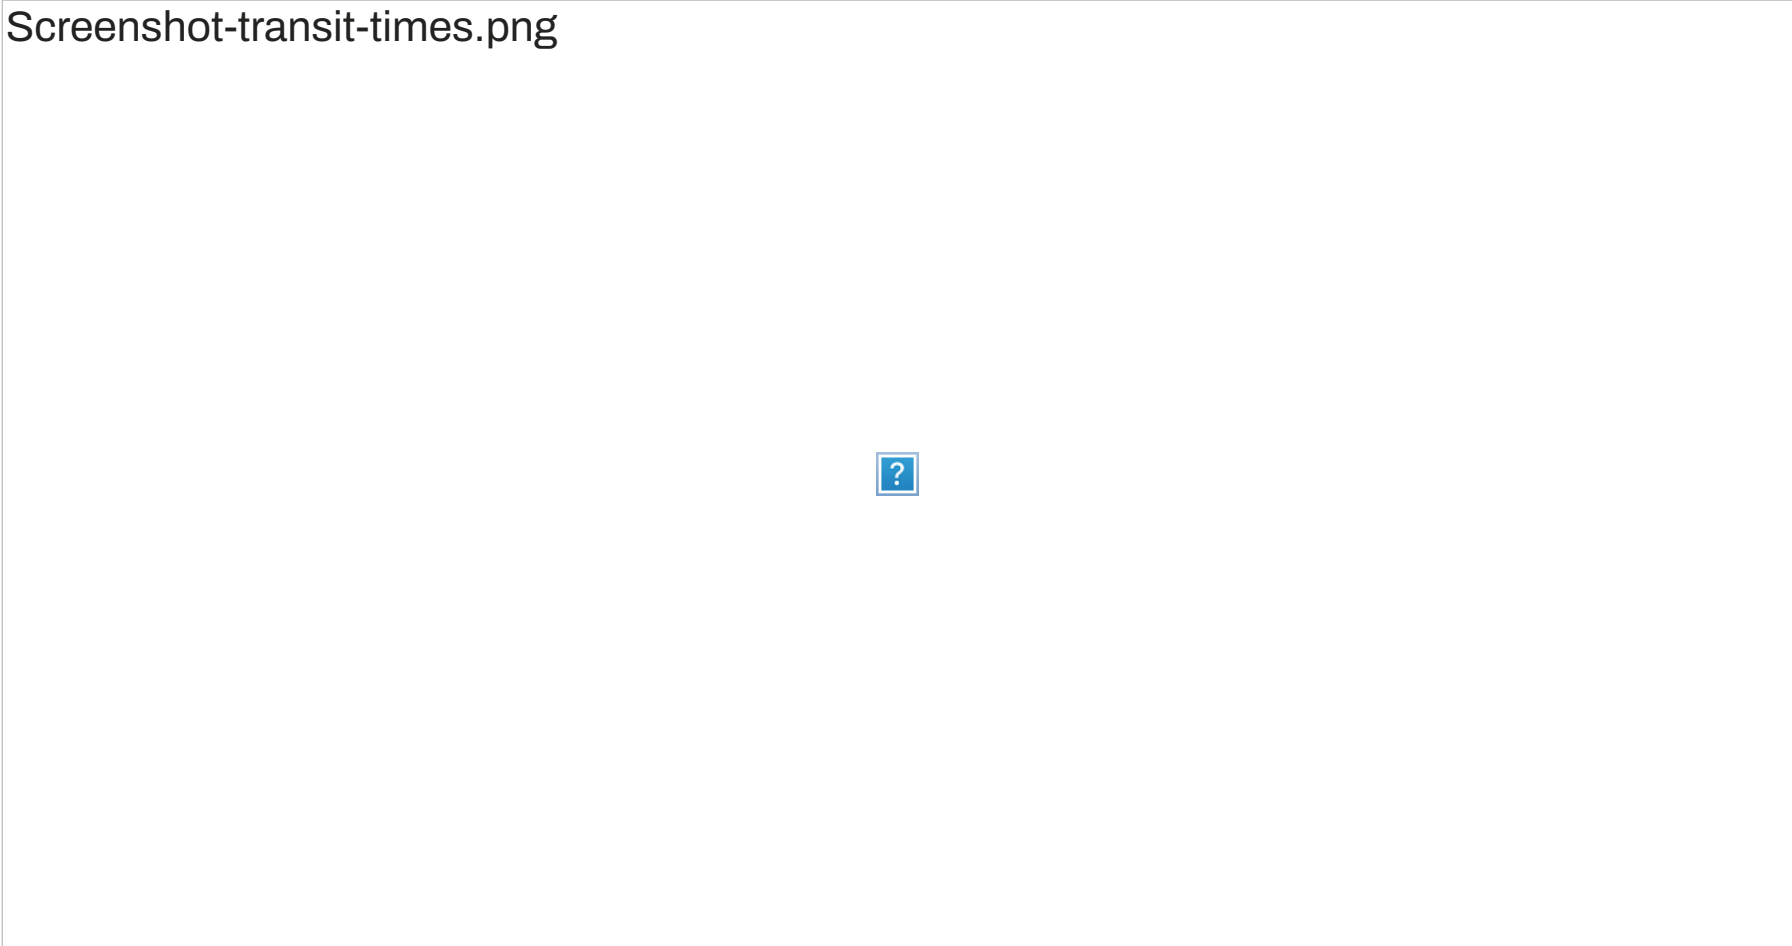

- Nansha port (south China)
- Abu Dhabi (UAE)

The Nansha call will introduce a direct connection with a competitive transit time to key north Europe ports such as: Rotterdam, Hamburg, Antwerp, London Gateway and Le Havre. The first vessel to make the new call will be Elly Maersk on voyage 930W.

The addition of Abu Dhabi, providing an additional option for the cargo moving in and out of the Middle East region, commences with Eugen Maersk on voyage 930E.

The new rotation will be: Shanghai – Nansha – Yantian – Tanjung Pelepas – Rotterdam – Hamburg – Antwerp – London Gateway – Le Havre – Salalah – Abu Dhabi – Jebel Ali – Ningbo

Transit times to the Chinese ports of Ningbo, Shanghai and Yantian will not be affected by these additional calls.
