We thank you for your business.

This note is related to Maersk’s advisories and rate announcements. Some customers come back to our customer service and disputes departments claiming that they did not receive the email containing the rate announcement and hence would like to log a dispute.

Through this note, we would like to inform you in addition to the email containing the rate announcement, all our advisories and rate announcements are posted on the Maersk website at: Rate Announcement and News Section. You can also sign up to receive weekly updates from Maersk on rates and information relevant to your business at this link.

In future, we request you to check our website or the rate announcements you get from our emails before logging a dispute. It will save time and effort on your part as well as ours.

If you would like to unsubscribe from our emails, please click here. A new email window will open, just click send and we will remove your address from our mailing lists.
