We would like to inform you that next July 16th, 2020 , “Día de la Virgen del Carmen patrona de los marineros”, will be a shipping industry bank holiday in Spain. Our offices will remain closed as well as our Customer Service Teams.

All maritime Terminals will remain closed on that day except Barcelona terminals, which will be open under Festivity scheme (*). Although Rail Stations’ Gates will remain open as usual, there will be no train services in any direction.

We really encourage you to please advance as much as possible any query for us and all your delivery instructions.

(*) In Barcelona, Terminals will open under Festivity scheme which means that any movement will be charged with a premium fee and that one will be re-charged to our Customers. Any 20’ container will be charged 25 EUR per gate in and/or gate out movement. Any 40’-45’ container will be charged 45 EUR per gate in and/or gate out movement on that day.

We remind you that our customer service and commercial teams area always available to support you whenever you need us.
