New Sailing Omission on Asia to The Mediterranean Network

MSC will exclude one sailing during week 14 on its Dragon service from Asia to the Mediterranean in order to adapt capacity to current market demands amid the evolving COVID-19 situation.

Please be advised that this notice relates to a single voyage only and that all our ocean liner services are continuigto operate, in order to provide essential support to supply chains around the world.

Customers may continue to place bookings for the shipments from Asia to the Mediterranean, as we are arranging alternate routings for cargo that would otherwise have been carried on the blanked voyage 014W.
