MSC Strengthens India-Med Offering Through New Joint Service

MSC is pleased to announce an improved offering for shippers of cargo on the India-Mediterranean trade by introducing a fast, direct service between the Indian subcontinent, Türkiye and East Mediterranean ports.

The IMED service, operated jointly with CMA CGM and COSCO, will consist of seven vessels of 9000 TEUs capacity. MSC will contribute five vessels, while CMA CGM and COSCO will each provide one vessel.

The port rotation is:

Mundra—Nhava Sheva—Colombo—King Abdullah Port—Port Said—Mersin—Piraeus—Tekirdag—Istanbul—Mersin—Iskendrun—King Abdullah Port—Salalah—Jebel Ali—Mina Khalifa—Hamad—Jubail—Jebel Ali—Mundra.

The joint service will start from Hamad on 12 November 2018.

MSC continuously strengthens its commitment to provide fast and reliable services to its customers in the Indian trade.

Full schedule details will be communicated shortly in order to allow you to place bookings as soon as possible and to plan future shipments.
