Upcoming changes to New Wallaby and Panda services

Please be advised that MSC will shortly cease operating the New Wallaby service. The last sailing southbound will be in week 17, on Christa Schulte (voyage 216S) departing Qingdao on 29 April. The last northbound call in Sydney is scheduled for 22 May (voyage 220N) on the same vessel.

In addition, MSC will be updating the rotation for the Panda service by adding a port call in Qingdao, China. MSC will be operating the updated service on a stand-alone basis. For the current rotation, the last call southbound will be the JPO Aquarius (voyage KQ217A) in Shanghai, with the last call northbound from Melbourne scheduled for 20 May (voyage KQ219R) on the same vessel.
