In order to keep providing you with our global services, Maersk is deactivating Import Service Charge (IMP) and merging the Import Service tariff with Merchant Haulage Import (MHI) for CY shipments and Inland Haulage Import (IHI) for SD shipments for all import cargo in Novorossiysk and Azov, effective 1st June 2020 PCD.

The revised surcharge amount as follows

Merchant Haulage Import : USD 80 per container

For your reference, we have also included the levels and rate structure for some sample corridors from World to Russia, Novorossiysk, effective 1st June 2020. These may be subject to future change; however, we will make sure to notify you accordingly.

- The above rates are also subject to other applicable surcharges, including local charges and contingency charges.
- The above surcharge acronyms mean: OF (Ocean Freight), OHC (Origin Terminal Handling Charge), DHC (Destination Terminal Handling Charge), ERS (Emergency Risk Surcharge), BAF (Bunker Adjustment Factor), LSS (Low Sulphur Surcharge) and PSS (Peak Season Surcharge).
- These rates are unaffected by, and do not affect, any tariff notified, published or filed in accordance with local regulatory requirements.
- For trades subject to the US Shipping Act or the China Maritime Regulations, quotations or surcharges that vary from the Maersk tariff shall not be binding on Maersk unless included in a service contract or service contract amendment that has been filed with the Federal Maritime Commission (FMC) or the Shanghai Shipping Exchange, as applicable.

We thank you for your business and look forward to serving your future global transportation needs.

Should you have any questions, please contact your local Maersk representative.
